Mugello, qualifying: Rasmussen and Leclerc

On the Tuscan track the two PREMA drivers conquer the 3 poles, while Petecof is in slightly more difficulty. Vips and Lappalainen also do well.

Always battle PREMA Powerteam, but this time also excellent performance of the KIC Motorsport drivers, especially in QP1. So Oliver Rasmussen with 2'00.084 wins race 1 pole, followed precisely by Juri Vips (KIC Motorsport), just 36 thousandths, and teammate Konsta Lappalainen with 2'01.204.

In QP2 Arthur Leclerc (PREMA Powerteam) is the fastest with 1'57.486, ahead of Rasmussen (1'57.

991) and the championship leader Gianluca Petecof (1'58.800). Patrik Pasma (KIC Motorsport) and Pierre Louis Chovet (Van Amersfoort Racing) also did well, sixth and seventh respectively in QP1 and fifth and sixth in QP2.

Best absolute second time valid for race 3 grid sees first Leclerc, then Rasmussen and Petecof.

Race 1 will start this afternoon at 2.30 pm, with some rain forecast. Live on acisport.it, the championship Facebook page, Motorsport.tv and MS Motor TV (Sky 228).
